Dear Principal,

THE ART COMPETITION UNDER THE THEME OF ROAD SAFETY.

The art competition held annually by the National Transport Commission based on the theme "Line-up from schools for a future without road accidents" has been prepared to be held for children of all schools in the Northern Province based on the theme of road safety in relation to the transport sector.

The approval of the Ministry of Education has been obtained for this event and this competition will be held under 05 categories in two rounds at the grade level from 01 to 13.

The contestants who qualify for the final round will have to draw their drawings live and this date will be informed later. Valuable certificates and prices will be awarded to winners.

Every competitor should be followed below guideline.

- Should draw the painting on 18 x 14-inch white paper
- Can be colored with any colour media other than colour pencils
- Mandatory to color the drawing throughout the whole paper
- The title of the drawings should be mentioned on the back of the paper
- All drawing must be certified by class teacher and principal. (Uncertified drawing will be rejected.)
- Duly filled annexure 01 should be paste on the back of the drawings

Completed drawings should deliver by registered post or by hand on or before 15th December 2023 to following addresses.
